Happy New Year!

Hello Laura,

The holidays are over and winter is settling in (sort of). During these quieter times, the library offers many programs to get you out of the house, learning something new, and helping you feel part of the community.

Winter is also a great time to catch up on your reading. Need a new author, or book suggestion? We'll create a list just for you. Click here to request one!

We're here to help. We look forward to seeing you soon!

Have a good day,

Laura
