To a New Year!

Greetings!

The holidays and the overindulgence are coming to an end. Cookies, parties, and holiday movies are wonderful, but I am always glad when January comes around, and things quiet down. Maybe not a "long winter's nap" but at least some time by the fire with a good book! My New Year's Day always includes looking at the new calendar, filling in important dates like birthdays and to-do reminders. I also take the turning of the calendar to think about what I'd like to do in the new year. Maybe you do too? Maybe you want to come to a library program that sounds interesting. Maybe you now have more time to read, but need suggestions. Take a look at the programs we have for this month, including some new ones! Need a new author? We are here for you. Stop in; we're happy to help!

The staff and I wish you the happiest of new years, and we hope to see you soon!
