December News in November

Greetings!

We're sending our December newsletter early because we want to give you ample notice to participate in three great programs coming soon.

Monday, November 24th we have a Q&A program about Medicare. An agent from State Farm Insurance will be here to answer all your questions. This is not a sales program, but help in navigating options during open enrollment.

Our Gingerbread House contest is on again! Drop off your homemade creation no later than Saturday, December 13th at 1pm. Voting will be the following week. All patrons can vote each day, and will determine the People's Choice winner. The Library Trustees and the board of the Friends of Bethlehem Public Library will vote to determine the grand prize winner of a $100 gift certificate to Little Village Toy & Book Shop! Many thanks to our Friends group for sponsoring this program each year.

Third, is our Cookie Swap, also on Saturday, December 13th. What a wonderful gift - make one type of cookie, and it instantly becomes a variety of sweet delights! Plus, you'll go home with the recipes too!

We hope that your holiday season is all that you want it to be. Thank you for all the good will toward the library this year, and we look forward to seeing you in 2026!

Happy Holidays,

Laura

Holiday Books for Adults

Catherine Dickens struggles with the burdens of Christmas despite her husband's success with A Christmas Carol. A magical sprig of holly leads her on three journeys into her past, rekindling her faith and holiday spirit. This heartwarming tale celebrates love, faith, and the simple joys of Christmas.

Inspector Ian Rutledge investigates a possible attempted murder in this seasonal mystery novella. In bed with a concussion, a man is convinced someone is trying to kill him after he claims he was struck by the hoof of a running horse whose rider never stopped to check on him.

Embrace the coziness of winter months with activities that promote peace, relaxation, and mindfulness, perfect for slowing down and enjoying the season. Includes 70 activities to help you make the most of the magical winter season.

A Sneek Peak at our Books from CLiF

(We received 100 new kids books thanks to the Rural Libraries' grant!!)

A new book by the author of Artemis Fowl.

Eleven-year-old Juniper Lane is thrown into a Christmas adventure like no other when she seeks the help of a mysterious woodsman living in her local park, who she suspects is Santa himself, and accidentally gets exposed to North Pole magic.

It's an epic below-(and above)-the-ice battle as friends join in on the tug-of-war to see who will reign supreme! This unique board book opens from bottom to top, which enables your child to grasp the above-and-below aspect of this tension-filled tale -- including its topsy-turvy twist!

A graphic novel for our earliest readers!

The Gingerbread Man is as excited as his classmates about their new class pet. And today it's his turn to feed Squeaks. But—uh-oh!—her cage door is open and she's nowhere to be found. Where could she have gone?
